Giving & Living

Wouldn't It Be Great To Save A Life?

How many of us get that once in a lifetime opportunity to say, "Someone is healthy, happy and living because of me!" Many of us have the ability to save a life by being a living organ donor. Several thousand people are currently waiting for a kidney, part of a liver or lung to return to the vibrant person they once were. Is there someone you know who is currently in need of a transplant?

Organ donation doesn't have to be an accident.
It can be a living decision.

What Do We Do?

The Living Donor Council's mission is to better the quality and experience of living organ donation in every aspect that best benefits all living donors and to increase the number of living donor transplants for those in need.

How Do We Do It?

- Support: Emotionally, spiritually
- Education: Provide professionals and communities with accurate information for better decision-making
- Advocacy: Through employment policies and health care practices beneficial to living donors
